WELCOME BACK

After last Saturdays solid performance against Bury when Steve Elliott's goal was enough to seal victory, it's good to be greeting our friends from Rochdale. Today's encounter could well decide which team qualifies for the final next Tuesday night, in what looks sure to be a fascinating clash. Rochdale produced a some what shock result last Saturday by beating Wigan (1-0).

Referring back to last weeks clash with Bury, it was good to see such fine performances from new boys, Phil Brown and Barry Cowdrill who both showed their attacking strengths as well during the game.

Steve Elliott must have been pleased to see the ball hit the back of the net, having not previously scored during 1988, although injuries have limited his appearances.

Looking ahead to the start of the league season, it would have been nice to kick-off with a home match, but unfortunately the computer has decided to send us on the long journey down to the seaside town of Southend in what promises to be a tricky contest. Southend concluded last season with seven wins out of their last 10 matches, which probably saved them from relegation to Division Four.

Southend have resisted temptation to sell leading goal-scorer David Crown and he could well be a player to watch out for next season.

ROCHDALE FOOTBALL CLUB

The Wanderers will be welcoming a new look Rochdale this afternoon with no less than seven new signings made by new manager Danny Bergara. Dave Sutton will need no introducing but other signings, Simon Copeland (ex-Sheffield Utd), Andrew Armitage (Leeds Utd), Mark Smith (Kettering), Dave Frain (ex-Sheffield Utd), Shane O' Shaughnessy (ex-Bradford) and Chris Wilkinson (ex-Leicester). Rochdale will be looking to improve on last season's final position of 21st, although on a personal note they shared the spoils last season with the whites, with an exiting 2-2 draw at spot-land and a goal-less encounter down here at Burnden.

DANNY BERGARA

Just a few weeks ago, Rochdale appointed Danny Bergara as team manager after Eddie Gray left the club to join Hull. Danny, a Uruguayan has been resident in England for the last fifteen years. In his youth he played for the Uruguayan International youth team, and moved to Spain at the age of 20 and played in the Spanish first and second division for eleven years before coming to England in 1973.

He has had a spell as England youth coach under Ron Greenwood in 1980/81. Had five years as a coach with David Pleat at Luton, worked as an assistant to Harry Haslam at Sheffield Utd and as an assistant manager to Bruce Rioach at Middlesbrough. His appointment as manager of Rochdale creates the first appointment of a latin American as a manager of a football league club.
